

Resort Location

Crusoe's Retreat is located on Fiji's main island of Viti Levu, on the famous Coral Coast. A two hour ride from Nadi International Airport, the Resort is close to many activities and excursions, but far enough away to provide an isolated tropical beach getaway experience. Located on ten acres, next to a traditional village, Crusoe's truly feels like you are staying in a Fijian village, with wonderful, friendly staff. Day trips can be arranged to some of Viti Levu's finest sights, including some fantastic river rafting and kayaking, the exciting city of Suva, the adventurous Pacific Harbour, the Fijian Cultural Centre and more. Crusoe's boasts a great location on a secluded sandy beach, amongst lush tropical gardens.

Resort Description

An intimate Fiji beach resort, Crusoe's Retreat features 28 individual Fijian-inspired Bures fronting a secluded sandy beach. Crusoe's truly embodies all that is wonderful about the Fiji Islands: world-famous hospitality, an unhurried pace, fresh island cuisine, lots of complimentary activities, and a dedication to local culture and traditions. The neighboring village of Namaqumaqua offers guests the opportunity to visit a true, authentic Fijian village, and experience everyday life in Fiji. The friendly staff, many of whom live in the village, make Crusoe's a special experience. A wide variety of activities and optional excursions make Crusoe's Retreat the perfect choice for adventure-seekers, scuba divers, romantics, and sun-seekers. Crusoe's Retreat truly is Fiji's Best Kept Secret.
